

Dash

Dash is a prisoner I met in the holding-tank at the outpatient department at the MDOC Hospital Unit 42. He says that he is the nephew of a well-known television evangelist who is affiliated with Kenneth Copeland Ministries.

Dash has accepted Jesus as his personal Savior. He also has been baptized. When asked about his eternal destiny, he says that he would hope that he would go to heaven. However, he was evasive when I asked him if he that the assurance of his eternal destiny.

Dash says that he never will be satisfied with his spiritual life this side of heaven.

Dash further went-on to say that he doesn't believe that saying the Jesus prayer is what saves a person.
